

STRAW HATS

FOR MEN AND BOYS.

Straw Hats will be more comfortable now and look a good deal cooler than the heavy, hot, felt hats. New styles can be had most anywhere, but every hat that comes into this store must be first in quality, as well as best in style. We are ready for the Straw Hat buyers.

ORGANIZATION PERFECTED.

Tennessee College of Osteopathy, to be located in Columbia.

The organization of the Tennessee College of Osteopathy, which will be located at this place, was perfected today, with N. M. Browder, A. M. D. O., W. Ammerman, D. O., Mrs. W. Ammerman, D. O., J. H. Bledsoe, M. D., and Sol T. Maxwell, incorporators. Dr. Browder is President of the College, with Mr. Maxwell, Secretary.

The College will be opened next September. The equipments will be first-class in every respect, including a chemical and histological laboratory, stereopticon, X-ray machines, etc. This school will doubtless bring a number of students to Columbia, and thereby make it a great benefit to the town. Dr. Ammerman, who has been instrumental in its organization, is deserving of much credit. The Herald wishes the enterprise success.

TOWN LOTS FOR SALE.

And a Chance to Get One at Your Own Price.

Mr. A. Park Morgan's property just South of Columbia, containing several acres, will be subdivided into large lots for residence purposes and sold at public auction next Wednesday, the sale beginning at 9:15 in the morning. Mr. Harris the auctioneer has a large ad on another page of this paper; read it for further information.

The land lies well; is high and dry, in a good neighborhood and convenient distance from business. Instead of living cramped up in a little 50 foot lot in town, with your next door neighbor hearing all your family secrets and the smell of their back yards coming into your bed room and parlor and tainting the victuals in your kitchen, why not walk ten minutes further and invest two or three hundred dollars in a half acre of ground and breathe the pure, fresh air from heaven?

This is a fine opportunity for home seekers. It would be a good idea for friends to buy together and build up a neighborhood in every respect congenial. The terms are easy and the price will not be high. Remember the date—next Wednesday. Free carriages will leave the Court House at 9 o'clock sharp.

I. O. O. F. CELEBRATION.

Columbia Lodge No. 3 and Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 57 Have Big Time.

Columbia Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 3, and Hope Rebekah Lodge, No. 57, had one of the largest and most enjoyable gatherings Tuesday night ever held by a secret order in this city; the occasion being the celebration of the eighty-second anniversary of American Odd Fellowship.

There was a full attendance of the local membership, while there were also many present from Spring Hill, Santa Fe, Culleoka, Summertown and Mt. Pleasant; there being in all nearly 200.

Messrs. W. J. Towler, H. D. Bullard, J. Erle Voss and W. C. Salmon were passed through the initiatory degree, after which speeches were made by several of the members. A talk by Mr. Isaac M. Powell, who is the oldest Odd Fellow in the State, was very much enjoyed. Mr. Powell has passed his 83rd birthday, and was the first man initiated into the Columbia Lodge of Odd Fellows, on October 9, 1841. Interesting talks were also made by Maj. Cheairs and Maj. W. J. Whitthorne.

The entire assemblage was then invited into the Rebekah hall, where a sumptuous banquet was spread. Altogether, this was a great occasion for Columbia Odd Fellowship.

DEATH UNDER THE WHEELS.

Prince Frierson, a Railroad Employee, Killed at the Depot.

Prince Frierson, a negro man in the employ of the freight department of the L. & N. railroad, met his death under the wheels Tuesday afternoon at the depot. It was Frierson's duty to assist in putting the baggage on passenger trains. Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock he went as usual to place the trucks in position and unload the baggage for the Mt. Pleasant accommodation, which had just arrived. After doing this he stepped across on another track, not noticing the approach of the switch engine and several cars. He was knocked down by the cars, and several trucks passed entirely over his body, causing almost instant death. Frierson was an industrious negro, and was well liked.

PUPILS TAUGHT.

John A Coffey's Will.

The will of the late John A. Coffey has been admitted to probate in the County Court. The will provides that all of the surplus stock that his wife does not want to keep for her own use, be sold, and of the proceeds derived therefrom all of the just debts and obligations of the estate are to be paid; after this is done, his wife is to have as much as she may think necessary for herself and family, and the remainder, if any, is to be divided equally among his five children. To his daughter, Mary J. Fox, he bequeathes 100 acres in the 13th district of Marshall county; to his son, Walker Coffey, two store-houses and lots in Culleoka, one occupied as a drug store, and the other as a dry-goods store; to his son, J. G. Coffey 116 acres located partly in the 13th district of Marshall county and partly in the 8th district of Maury; to his daughter Ethel Coffey, 182½ acres in the 8th district on Bear Creek; to his daughter, Sallie Coffey, 144 acres in the 6th district, on Bear and Globe Creeks. His wife, Mary W. Coffey, is appointed executrix without bond.

Among the graduates in the Industrial Department of the Tuskegee (Alabama) Normal Institute, who are to be graduated, are Russell Henry Fleming, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fleming (col.), live in Columbia. He is the only graduate from Tennessee, and the only boy in his class. He is preparing to be a professional nurse, and during the graduation exercises publicly dressed a bad wound with much credit to himself and satisfaction to his teachers. It has taken him three years to get this diploma, and he has one more year yet in the academic department, but after that he will be well prepared to fight the battle of life. We are glad for his sake and the sake of his parents that he is doing so well, and hope that his good example may be followed by others of his race.
